

PILE-UP . . . Swarm of South tacklers move in to bury Redondo's Jim Allison in six player pile-up in fourth quarter action of Friday's tilt. South players are Cliff Davis (13), Ray White (83), and Dave Birmingham (52).

BEEHAWK STING . . . Was felt on this play as Redondo lightweight griddler rambled down sidelines for sizeable gain in 25-6 triumph over South B's Friday. Speedy Redondo ball carrier escaped near face-mask tackle by charging Spartan defender. (Herald photo)

FIRST LOSS FOR SPARTANS

Beehawks Turn South Mistakes Into 25-6 Bay League Victory

Hopes of an unbeaten season for South High's Bee footballers were erased by Redondo's thundering Beehawks who rolled up a 25-6 win Friday afternoon at South.

Redondo, in stretching its record to 4-0, capitalized on two pass interceptions, a recovered South fumble, and a poor punt to set up the four TDs.

South's lone score came in the third quarter on a perfect-ly executed 70 yard punt return by sophomore Tim Roettger, who picked up two key sideline blocks along the way.

Redondo . . . 0 6 6 13—25
South Hi . . . 0 0 6 0—6
South TD — Roettger.

Torrance Couple Sacks Big Bass at Atascadero Lake

ATASCADERO—James H. Bradford of 2372 West 235th Street, Torrance, and his party turned in one of the week's best catches of bass at Santa Margarita Lake last week.

Bradford, with his wife Martha and Cecil and C. L. Perry also of Torrance limited on bass to 5 1/4 pounds.

South's only football win of the week over Bay League rival Redondo was provided by the Class C team Thursday, 14-6 at Spartan Field.

NEW SHOES? . . . No, football referees aren't comparing footies with each other but were part of a five minute search by players from both teams and officials for lost contact lenses of South griddler Victor Grijalva. Lenses were given up as "lost", but South lost 26-19 decision Friday night. (Herald photo)

Gunter, Tortorelli Hold Slim 'Cycle Racing Leads at Ascot

Both expert and novice motorcycle riders are in the tightest point battle in many years as the season moves into its final stages Friday night at Ascot Speedway.

The fur really will fly as Al Gunter and Don Tortorelli try to withstand the determined challenge of the best field of the year, winners automatically become dirt track champions of 1960.

GUNTER, POINT leader in the expert division, will be threatened by a half dozen hot shoes, including the wild riding Bart Markel, recent winner of the Midwest half mile track championship.

Also holder of the new National TT title, Markel definitely will compete, according to Agajanian. Markel developed a large following when he captured the first 2 of the 3 main events held early this season at Ascot. He then left for a triumphant tour of the midwest, but is back to battle Gunter; Sammy "The Flying Flea" Tanner, 1958 and '59 dirt track champ; Stu Morley, winner of four previous mains; and Dick Dorresteyn, 1959 king.

Agajanian predicts that the race for points in the novice class may well overshadow the battle among the experts. Don Tortorelli leads by a margin so narrow that any one of four other riders who have a good night can jump into the lead.

MANY THINK Elliott Schultz, returning after recovering from injuries, will give the leaders the most trouble. But you can't discount Jim Plain, '60 State champ; Mil Green, fastest improving rider; and Jim Dove.

Racing begins at 8:30 p. m. and 14 events will be presented.

STU MORLEY captured the 20-lap main event and Al Gunter took the 3-lap trophy dash to top the last racing championships at Ascot Speedway last Friday night.

Results:
200-LAP MAIN EVENT—1. Stu Morley, 2. Al Gunter, 3. Neal Keen, 4. Sammy Tanner, 5. Don Hawley. Time: 8:06:20
10-LAP NOVICE CHAMPIONSHIP
1. Elliott Schultz, 2. Jim Plain, 3. Don Tortorelli, 4. Mil Green, 5. Ed Rowe (No time)
3-LAP TROPHY DASH—1. Gunter, 2. Morley, 3. Tanner, 4. Keen, 1:13.51

'Silver Dollar Day' in Effect At Local Track

Jess Channon of Torrance, the new director of Western Speedway in Gardena is putting into effect another new idea in racing this afternoon. Besides the double header event of hot rods and early model stocks, Silver Dollar Day will be observed.

Admission price will be one silver dollar. Paul Jones, also of Torrance and brother of Parnelli Jones, is making his debut at the 139th and Western Ave. Speedway.

First race is at 2:30. Time trials start at 1 p. m.

North Hi Cees Rip Morningside By 21-7 Score

North's class C football team broke a 7-7 tie in the fourth quarter, with two touchdown thrusts for a 21-7 Bay League win over Morningside Thursday.

In taking their third straight triumph, the Saxons scored all three TDs on runs from within the five-yard line.

Quarterback Rudy Suarez scored first on a short sneak, Chuck Carpenter ripped off tackle for four yards and Pete Molina went over from five yards out for the final touchdown.

Carpenter added two extra points and Dennis Bush went over for the other PAT.
